A Community Conversation:

COMING TOGETHER TO SHARE A STORY:
Finding Strength in Vulnerability

Come experience personal stories from members of the Penn community who display grit and resilience in times of adversity.

MONDAY, 1.27.20
5:30 - 7:30 pm
Ben Franklin, Houston Hall

5:30 - 6:00 pm Refreshments provided
6:00 - 7:30 pm Conversation

SPEAKER:

Dr. Justin McDaniel
Professor of Religious Studies
School of Arts and Sciences

Dr. Justin McDaniel is best known to Penn students as the “monk class” professor. Interested in Buddhism since adolescence, he immersed himself in Buddhist culture and became a monk while volunteering in Thailand and Laos. Come hear about his challenging but liberating monastic experiences and how they shaped his current life and academic journey that brought him to Penn.